

Job Title: Fire Protection Engineer – West County Fire Protection District

Position greatly impacts public safety

Ideal candidate will have a degree in Mechanical or Fire Protection Engineering and at least 5 years of professional Fire Protection Engineering experience.

- Professional Registration as a Fire Protection Engineer is required.
- Knowledge of current building codes, IBC, NFPA, and IFC.
- Knowledge of fire sprinkler design, layout and hydraulic calculations.
- Superior verbal and written communications skills.
- Ability to meet fast-paced deadlines while managing multiple projects.
- Self-starter with the ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously.
- Interpersonal skills is a must.
- Successful candidate will interface with the public on a daily basis which requires positive and engaging attitude.
- Be able to manage and coordinate personnel that perform onsite inspections.

Benefits: Company offers competitive compensation, top healthcare, continuing education, training & an excellent work environment.

Salary range is $70,000 to $90,000

Submit letter of intent and resume to:

Chief Ernie Rhodes
223 Henry Ave
Manchester, Missouri 63011
636-256-2000